See body of report please.

At 5 p.m. 9-9-40, information was received by D.I. Tabrum to the effect that a detective of the S.C.G.P.B. had been murdered on Avenue Haig.

Enquiries were made by the undersigned at No. 13 Jessfield Road where this fact was verified.

Later the following particulars were obtained by the undersigned.

The deceased was:

LIEN TSUNG MING (刘震民), 25, Anhwei,
a detective of the Zicawei Station,
S.C.G.P.B.

At about 2.30 p.m. 9-9-40, he was riding in a ricksha from East Fah Wah Village along a lane leading to Avenue Haig.

When the ricksha reached Avenue Haig and turned North a single shot was fired by some unknown person, the bullet penetrating the back of the above named's head, causing, it is believed, instant death.

The ricksha puller, took the explosion for the sound of a burst tyre and continued on his way, whilst the assailant made his escape unobserved.

At the corner of Avenue Haig and Edinburgh Road a S.C.G.P.B. Constable on Traffic duty, noticed unnatural position of the passenger in the ricksha, stopped the vehicle and found Lien Tsung Ming to be dead.

The body was then in the same ricksha transported to a sub-station of the S.C.G.P.B.

A party of Japanese Constabulary accompanied by Officers of S.C.G.P.B. then proceeded to the scene of shooting and conducted investigation the
